However I have a question - If I play online now as a 30 year old man, won't the graphics be obsolete? I've been looking around a bit and the graphics seem pretty decent - but are they really that bad? My biggest complaint is that I'm going to have to invest $19.95 in something that I can't play anymore. I'm a HUGE fan of games like that and I'm buying anything that comes out in this genre, but this? I purchased the last expansion, and was absolutely livid with the lack of a save option for my previous civilization. I have created roughly 300 saves on the disc and I'm going to have to re-load my previous saved game to play in HD. What a huge waste of money. Yeah... That's a problem. I bought the game in 2002, and re-downloaded it (to play it on a PC) in 2006. They're going to be fixing it in the 1.4 patch 82157476af
